UNITED STATES INTERVENTION IN SILESIA ASKED

COUNTY AGENTS ON AN 85-MILE TOUR OF LA CROSSE FARMS

Fifty-five Agricultural Heads, Farmers and Business Men Visit Prize Farms of County

GREATER CO-OPERATION AMONG FARMERS DECLARED REAL NEED

Fine Stock and Wonderful Crops on Land Win Praise

FIFTY-FIVE men and three women, representing all walks of farming in the state, made an all-day tour of La Crosse county farms Tuesday. There were county farm agents, farmers, county officials and business men in the party. And after visits to more than a score of the finest farms in the county all were unanimous on one point, at least, and that is that greater co-operation between farmers is the thing most needed to assure bigger, finer crops for La Crosse. Eighty-five miles of county roads were traversed on the trip.

The tour was under the direction of W. E. Spreiter, county agricultural agent. The caravan left the Standard hotel and moved out the Mormon Center road. The tourists went south as far as St. Joseph, then turned north toward West Salem, where the party was the guest of the La Crosse County and the West Salem State banks for dinner. From Salem the route led through the Mindoro, Amsterdam, Prairie, Midway, and Onalaska. The visitors enjoyed a supper served at the county agricultural agents themselves, was the point stressed by Principal L. C. Hatch.

Greater Co-operation Urged
Co-operation between county agents and farmers and between farmers themselves, was the point stressed by the speakers at the informal program given after the supper. Val Koppel of Holmen and S. L. Markle spoke of the needs of the producers. L. C. Hatch, T. H. Campion, Art Collette and George M. Briggs all of Madison and connected with the co-operative extension work of the agricultural department of the University of Wisconsin, told of the growth of extension work among the farmers; praise for the progress made by La Crosse county was voiced by the county agents from various counties throughout the state.

Mr. Markle declared that the thing most needed by farmers was the spirit of co-operation among the producers of the county, that one farmer should unselfishly assist another in producing bigger and better crops by aiding him how to avoid mistakes in planning and caring for his crops.

Dairying Greatest Industry
Mr. Koppel asserted that the biggest industry this county can engage in is the dairy business. "La Crosse has stood for quality in its dairy products," said Mr. Koppel. "You can't imitate the genuine article with much hope of success. The creameries are going to advertise their products. They are going to start their campaign shortly and a great effort will be made to place this county in the foremost ranks of dairying counties of the state."

Following is a list of the county agents, farmers county officials, and business men and others who made the tour of the farms of the county: T. H. Campion, Madison; C. L. Hawkins, E. G. Bales, Mrs. L. E. Dutton, R. Koch, James Prior, Herman Lundquist, La Crosse; Sam Hyde, La Crosse; C. S. Cono, La Crosse; W. C. Rozan, Wausau; J. C. Hatch, Onalaska; J. J. Pettengill, La Crosse.

Lloyd George Will Attend Washington Conference On Disarmament Says London

LONDON.—(By the Associated Press.)—It is announced as provisionally arranged that Premier Lloyd George will attend the Washington conference on limitation of armaments.

The suggestion that a meeting preliminary to the Washington disarmament conference be held in London to enable the British dominions to express their views on Far Eastern questions is likely to be abandoned. It was learned in a well informed quarter here Wednesday.

"Any and all conferences dealing with these two subjects will be held in America," was the assurance given in this quarter.

RAIL STRIKE IS IN PROSPECT SAY WORKERS IN CITY

Meeting of Brotherhood of Clerks and Freight Handlers Brings Out Situation

STRIKE BALLOTS PREPARED TO BE DISTRIBUTED SOON

No Compromise Likely Say Members of Local Organization

(By Executive Board of Brotherhood) A regular meeting of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees was held Monday night.

Due to the critical situation now prevailing on the railroads the attendance was exceptionally large. The reports of the committees regarding the system agreements now being negotiated by the various system boards developed information of intense interest to the employees and also shows what may be expected in the near future.

Although the labor board mentioned sixteen principles which must be incorporated in all agreements, it was pointed out that certain railroads take it upon themselves to openly defy the labor board's ruling and announce that they will make agreements only with such organizations as they see fit.

The Northwestern committee reported that they had agreed upon 64 rules and had referred four rules to the labor board for decision. The C. & N. W. and the M. & N. A. R. have referred 14 rules to the labor board, and apparently unable to get out of a well worn track are making a true to form and have notified locally that one of the provisions of one of the rules they have agreed to would not be followed. The C. M. & St. P. committee was unable to report the exact number of rules agreed upon or referred to the labor board. It was pointed out that at last reports the railroad officials had taken an arbitrary stand on nearly one-half of the proposed rules. The committee was instructed to secure for the members full information.

Wage Reduction Rejected
The wage reduction has been rejected, advises a letter from headquarters, and inasmuch as the labor board is totally unable to enforce their decision in the case of the A. B. & A. R. and the M. & N. A. R., they have been notified that the wage question will be handled with the railroads direct.

Strike ballots are now being prepared and will be distributed in the near future. The sixteen standard recognized railroad organizations are acting unitedly in this matter and as principle as well as wages are involved no compromise is likely. The Big Four transportation brotherhoods are taking the lead in this matter and are solidly supported by the rest of the organizations, is the word from headquarters.

The contrast between the wage situation on the "Ford" owned Detroit, Toledo & Ironton R. R. where wages were increased on July 1 to a minimum of $6.50 per day of 8 hours, and the $3.20 minimum established by the labor board, was reviewed and leads to the conclusion that the wage cut (Continued on page six)

OLD-TIME HOMES GIVING WAY TO THE MODERN APARTMENT

WASHINGTON.—The old-fashioned American home—the single dwelling with a front and back yard—is giving away even in the smaller cities of the United States to the modern apartment house.

This is revealed in a report on 1920 building operations, issued Wednesday by the United States chamber of commerce. The report shows that last year seventy per cent of the families provided with new homes, got one-family dwellings; eleven per cent, two-family dwellings and 19 per cent a multi-family dwelling. The same figures show that the proportion of multi-family dwellings provided last year, was the largest in the small cities.

RESUME PROBE OF SMALL REGIME IN ILLINOIS STATE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—The Sangamon county grand jury resumed its investigation Wednesday of the state treasury and charges of alleged irregularities during the term of Les Small, present governor, and Fred E. Sterling.

The entire investigation began, it was said, on the ten million dollars loan of the state funds to Armour & Company and Swift & Company, Chicago packers. This loan, it was said, was made through the Grant Park bank, an institution operated by the late Senator B. C. Curtis, close friend and political colleague of Governor Small for many years.

WHITE SOX PLAYERS DOUBLE-CROSSED THE BRIBERS SAYS BURNS

Became Sick of their Bargain and Decided to Play to Win in Third Game. He Claims

Threatened Exposure When Gandil Refused to Pay Him

CHICAGO, Ill.—The Chicago White Sox players, after agreeing with a clique of gamblers to throw the 1919 world's series to Cincinnati for $100,000, became sick of the deal when they were not paid the bribes agreed and at a meeting before the third game decided to play their best and win the series, Bill Burns said. Then, feeling they had been crossed by the gamblers, they double-crossed their leaders by telling them they would lose the third game, but instead won it three to nothing, with Dick Kerr pitching.

Bar Testimony

Attempts of the state to have Burns tell of a conversation with Eddie Cicotte in New York, where the state claims the alleged conspiracy was formed, failed when Judge Friend sustained a defense objection.

Recalled to Stand

Burns was recalled to the stand Wednesday, his testimony on Tuesday having been interrupted by adjournment of court. He was indicted on a charge of conspiracy with the state if he turned state's evidence.

Tells of "Sell-Out"

Burns Tuesday recited a story of numerous meetings between the players and alleged gamblers involved, testified that Eddie Cicotte said he would throw the first game if he had to throw the ball over the fence, asserted Claude Williams, White Sox south-paw, agreed to throw the second game of the series, and named Arnold Rothstein, of New York, Alvin Karpis, former pugilist; David Zerkow, of Des Moines, a defendant; Billy Maharg, of Philadelphia, and himself as among the organizers of the alleged conspiracy.

Court Room Crowded

An hour before the opening of the trial the doors of the court room were ordered closed, when every seat was taken.

Gandil Was Spokesman

Burns related further details of meetings in Cincinnati hotels, at which he said the gamblers and players discussed throwing the games. Atoll and Bennett, identified as David Zerkow of Des Moines, Iowa, a defendant, were the leaders of the alleged gamblers and "Chick" Gandil headed the players according to Burns.

De Valera Reported Ready to Meet Ulster Premier at Belfast; Lloyd George to Have Specific Proposals for Sinn Fein Leader at Thursday Conference

LONDON.—The probability of a meeting in Belfast between Eamonn D. De Valera and Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, is foreshadowed in some political quarters and newspapers Wednesday.

General J. C. Smuts, premier of South Africa, who re-entered the negotiations Tuesday, doubtless is largely responsible for this and similar optimistic speculation which has survived under great difficulty since Monday, when the Ulster premier departed suddenly for Belfast, after making a forceful statement on the subject of self-determination as it applied to Ulster.

This seemed for a time to end all hope for an amiable meeting between the two Irish leaders but the moderating influence of General Smuts, coupled with Belfast dispatches to the effect that Sir James does not regard the peace parleys as interrupted, have gone a long way towards re-establishing confidence.

FIRE BURNS BARN OF BARTL BREWING COMPANY TUESDAY

Estimate that Nearly $1,000 Worth of Damage is Done by the Blaze

HAY AND OATS STORED IN BARN ARE DESTROYED

Fire is Alleged to Have Been Caused by Boys

Involving an estimated damage of nearly $1,000, a barn which was the property of the Bartl Brewing company located near Twelfth and La Crosse streets, was almost completely destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon.

The fire is alleged to have been started by several boys who had previously been seen around the premises. Police are investigating.

Although the alarm was turned in in time to partially save the walls of the building, hay and oats stored in the place for the winter were destroyed. It was said that horses in the barn at the time of the fire were taken out before they were burned by the flames. No vehicles of any kind were stored in the building.

Several boys have been questioned by the police department as to their whereabouts before the fire; however, none has been held in direct connection with starting the fire, it was said at Central station Wednesday.

WALTHER LEAGUE SPEAKER SCORES MODERN DANCING

Says Dancing Itself is Not Harmful But Modern Version is Injurious to Morals

MILWAUKEE, Wis., — "Modern dancing is an exhibition of lewdness based solely on sexual attraction," the Rev. Paul Landmann, St. Paul, first vice president of the English district of the Missouri synod of the Lutheran church, told the Walther league Tuesday at its convention.

"The Lutheran church is opposed to modern dancing and to the public dance hall as a stamping ground of immorality," he said. "Dancing in itself is not harmful. The old-fashioned dance, the minuet, and the graceful steps of long ago, were not bad. If it were a love of music and a love of motion that were desired, then why should not the young men get that dancing with one another?"

"The men are in a sense responsible for the immoral dresses of some of the young women of today. Women like to appear as the men want them. I am not opposed to modern dress as a whole. It is healthful, but it sometimes goes to extremes."

"There is a tendency among the younger generation toward loose morals and if the Walther league were to do nothing else than combat this tendency it would justify its existence."

The Rev. R. Kretschmar, superintendent of the foreign missions of the

Briefly, the attractions are—an incomparable climate, wild animals of numerous species living their natural life (Yellowstone is the largest wild game preserve in the world); magnificent forests; wild flowers of brilliant hues, in great variety and profusion; lakes, rivers, waterfalls (the Great Fall is almost twice as high as Niagara), innumerable rivers and creeks; geysers, mud volcanoes, hot and mineral springs, exquisitely colored pools; mountains and canyons; wonderful hotels, permanent "corny" camps, an automobile ride that has no counterpart in all the world and—the Cody Road, which has been called "the most wonderful ninety miles in America."

A church without foreign missions cannot make progress, he said.

It is an ignorant generation biblically, according to answers received by Rev. Walter A. Maier, executive of the Walther league, who handed a biblical questionnaire to members of the Walther league, the answers to which are equally as disappointing as those to Thomas A. Edison's famous queries testing general education.

The biblical questionnaire revealed that 80 per cent of the church people did not read their Bible daily, that the expenses of state government, approximately one-third of the Protestant denominations had no systematic Bible study.

"I'm all for hot weather and lots of it," the insurance agent proclaimed when someone asked him when he did the most business—summer or winter.

"In the summer," he said, "office doors are likely to be open wide. When I call on a likely prospect I can see him sitting at his desk as a rule. He doesn't have the nerve to tell the office boy that he's not in, when I've just waved cheerfully to him. So I seldom cool my heels in a reception room when the weather is warm."

UNUSUAL NUMBER OF ICEBERGS REPORTED IN THE ATLANTIC

Ocean Steamship Lines Patrolled by United States Coast Guard Cutters

BOSTON, Mass.—Icebergs of unusual size and number, one of them estimated to contain enough ice to supply the houses of a large part of the country for the rest of the summer, have been encountered by the United States coast guard cutters Seneca and Yamacraw which are patrolling the ocean steamship lanes.

Since early February the United States government, acting under an international agreement and at international expense, has maintained the annual iceberg patrol. The coast guardsmen have helped many vessels to steer a safe course through the danger zone, some have been extricated from serious positions, others have been warned when they were headed for the ice.

The open winter caused a large number of bergs to break away early and drift south. They have become an abnormally serious menace to navigation, according to naval officers. Many are of huge dimensions.

The giant of all the icebergs is described by Lieutenant Commander E. H. Smith, navigator of the Seneca, as approximately one-third of a mile long and lowering 75 feet above the water. This berg remained in sight for nearly a month, during which time it traveled 300 miles. The vagaries of the ice movements are shown by the fact that another berg circled about the vessel, covering 25 miles in three days.

At times the patrol boats have gone alongside the floating refrigerators to obtain cracked ice for the ward-room or huge chunks which could be melted to replenish the fresh water supply.

Although plans for riding the seas of these dangers to navigation have often been proposed, the coast guard officers insist the icebergs "still rule the northern sea." They are awaiting with interest reports of experiments made by the destroyer Brockton which shot several bergs with torpedoes. Some of the coast guardsmen are frankly skeptical of this plan and insist that a torpedo could make no more impression on an iceberg than a popgun would on a mountain of cotton.

TOO MUCH SYMPATHY IS WASTED ON THE CRIMINAL SAYS TOWN

MADISON, Wis.—Too much sympathy is wasted on criminals and not enough is showered on families of victims according to Henry Town, for many years warden at the penitentiary at Waupun, and now member of the state board of control.

"It is impossible to make a success of government by the people unless crime is properly punished," declared Henry Town in an interview today. "All government fails unless founded on force when necessary. So long as human nature possesses weakness and failings, so long as selfishness, anger, passion, and tendencies toward brutal exter, society must punish criminals and make crime and the consequences of crime very real and altogether certain. While every effort should be made to help the unfortunate and lift up the fallen, there is no place for sickly sentiment in a government by law and order. If one half of the energy now spent in sympathy on murderers and criminals would be devoted to the families of the victims and the other half to bringing criminals to justice, this would be a happier and safer world in which to live."

HETTINGER COUNTY REPORTED IN SORE FINANCIAL STRAITS

Farmers and Business Men
Meet to Discuss Money
Difficulties

NO RELIEF IN SIGHT SAYS
EDITOR OF COUNTY PAPER

Can Only Look to the Lord and the Red Cross, He Says

MOTT, S. D.—A mass convention of farmers and business men of Hettinger county will be held here Wednesday at the court-house to discuss financial difficulties in the county. The meeting was called by N. P. Noble, county auditor, following trying up of practically all the county's funds.

Crop failures and recent closing of the state bank of Bismarck at Bismarck under orders of the state bank examiner pending an examination were given as some of the reasons for the trouble.

Approximately nineteen thousand of the county's money is in the Bismarck bank.

According to semi-official figures, only 41 percent of the taxes in Hettinger county were paid last year and this with the tying up of other funds leaves the county virtually without money to meet salaries and other expenses, it was said. Plans for relieving this condition will be discussed today.

It is expected that Hettinger county will follow the example of Grant county, adjoining, where the commissioners have issued orders for the discharge of all stenographers and clerks at the court house and cut salaries of deputies by $35 a month, effecting a saving of $6,650 for the coming year.

M. F. Connolly, editor, writing in the current issue of the Hettinger County Herald, says: "The meeting is necessary because Hettinger county is facing the greatest crisis in its history on account of an almost total crop failure, failure of three of its banks, and the fact that the finances of the state are in such condition that no relief can be looked for except from the Lord and the Red Cross."

CAMPBELL DENIES HE RECEIVED MONEY TO AID BERGDOLL ESCAPE

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—Major Bruce Campbell, director of education and formerly counsel for prisoners at Governor's Island, N. Y., denied here Tuesday charges of Mrs. Emma C. Bergdoll, before a house investigating committee at Washington, that he had accepted money to help her son, Grover C. Bergdoll, to escape.

"I never had such a conversation with Mrs. Bergdoll or her son," Major Campbell said. "I was counsel for Grover Bergdoll when he was tried before a court-martial, but following his conviction I had nothing further to do with his case."

Shame on Them.

PERHAPS there are a few mothers who do not know the virtues of Fletcher's Castoria. Perhaps there are a few who know that there are imitations on the market, and knowing this demand Fletcher's. It is to ALL motherhood, then, that we call attention to the numerous imitations and counterfeits that may be set before them.

It is to all motherhood everywhere that we ring out the warning to beware of the "Just-as-good". For over thirty years Fletcher's Castoria has been an aid in the upbuilding of our population; an aid in the saving of babies.

And yet there are those who would ask you to try something new. Try this. Try that. Even try the same remedy for the tiny, scarcely breathing, babe that you in all your robust womanhood would use for yourself. Shame on them.

His patients are his family and to lose one is little less than losing one of his own flesh and blood.

EAST MEETS WEST IN A DEBATE AT BANK CONVENTION

Bankers from Omaha and New York Discuss Fisher Plan for Stabilizing Dollar

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—A debate between Omaha and New York members of the American Institute of Banking will be a feature Wednesday at the annual convention of the institute here. The subject will be "Resolved, that the plan of Prof. Irvin Fisher for stabilizing the dollar should be adopted by the federal government."

The affirmative team from New York announced that they will support their arguments with a mass of statistics and views of leading money economists of the nation and point out that interest in favor of the adoption of the plan to prevent money fluctuations in the buying powers of the dollar, recently led to the formation in Washington of the stable money league.

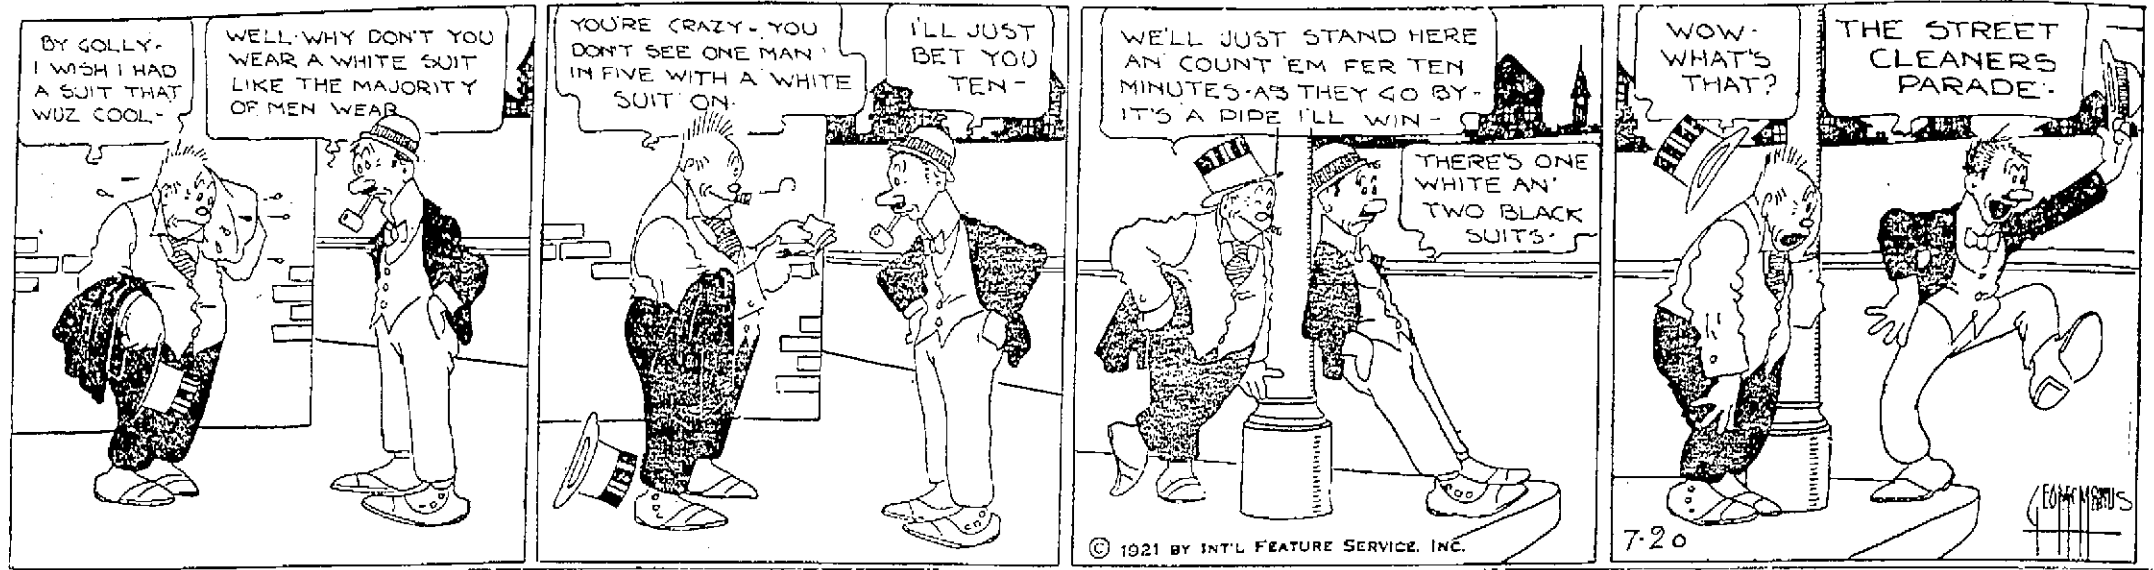

The negative side, to be taken up by bankers from Omaha, will strike at Prof. Fisher's theory as an idealistic plan that cannot work out practically, and that instead of solving difficulties attendant upon price changes it would disrupt the whole order of business and industry in this country.

A round table discussion by delegates will be held daily for one hour under the direction of a committee headed by J. W. Brundley of Spokane, Washington.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Public Debate

Editor, Tribune and Leader-Press:
I read in your Sunday issue, Mr. Russell's article, "Helping Ourselves," and I agree with him in everything he says, but I would go still further in helping ourselves. Why support a bunch of non-producers that do not even live in our (the finest city in the United States), that are bleeding our city with a third class street car system, a one-man proposition that will soon be a no-man car, that are even now agitating a ten-cent fare, whose cars go when they please, come when they please, turn corners against the current of traffic, and make no pretension of a connection in transferring, whose cars sound like a thousand pies under a fence every time they turn a corner, and set us alarm clocks every morning, and keep our teeth on edge all day long—whose every act and move is for dividends and nothing else?
We own our waterworks, and it's the only thing in the shape of a public utility that has not bled the people and that the people are not kicking about. The Lord only knows what we would have to pay for water if the Wisconsin-Minnesota Light and Power company owned the water works.

Lord, Calif., owns all public utilities. They have the finest schools and streets, and it is the healthiest and cheapest town to live in, in the United States.

San Francisco owns a street car system that runs on Market street in competition with a privately owned car line, and the city gets dividends, pays better wages in every department, gives better service and has the best equipment.

The little town of St. Petersburg, Fla., owns its car line, bought from private owners, who could not pay operating expenses, and it increased employees' wages from forty to fifty cents an hour, and, according to Mr. Ludwig, director of utilities, has monthly receipts of $20,032.00 and a profit to the city of $10,000 a month. The company saved $10,000 a month, by getting rid of the high-salaried officials.

If we owned our street car line, all revenues would remain in the city in the form of increased wages, better service and cheaper fares, every one would be benefited, the merchant through better and bigger sales, the city through better and more tax-paying homes, the patrons through cheaper and better service, and the employees through better wages.

Let's go. Let's co-operate. "United we stand, divided we fall." We have fallen far enough, in fact, we have fallen for everything, even the Wall street propaganda, that elected our last Wall street representative in the White House. Let's have a street car system run for the people, and by the people.

DRINKS "EVIDENCE" SEIZED BY DRY AGENT

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Albert Multerer, Milwaukee saloonkeeper, drank the evidence seized by state prohibition agents, Hentung and Bloodgood, while a raid on Multerer's place was in progress, according to a report to the district attorney Tuesday. The official report says: "While Agent Hentung was writing a label to be placed on a bottle of whiskey seized in Multerer's saloon, Multerer drained the contents of the bottle."

The standard tire likes nothing better than to prove its service

PEOPLE used to be secretly envious of the young fellow who came tearing up the street and stopped his car with a jerk.

Now they are inclined to criticize such abuse of tires. A mark of the growing consciousness about tires—their service, their work, their value.

This same respect for a good tire is the reason why the four-square tire dealer has passed up odds and ends, "job lots", "seconds", "cut prices"—and come out squarely with the standard quality service of U. S. Tires.

He is getting a bigger, and also better, tire business than he ever had before.

He is dealing now with his own kind of people. The substantial citizen. The man who knows that you can't get something for nothing. The steady customer—not the bargain hunter.

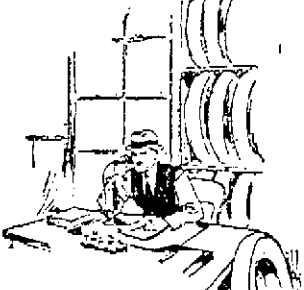

To the man who has not yet learned the standard tire service he is entitled to we say—

Go to the dealer in U. S. Tires and make him show you.

The U. S. Tire you buy is a tire built for current demands. No overproduction. No piling up of stock. No loss of mileage by hanging around on the dealer's racks.

Every way you look at it, a par quality tire at a net price.

Here is the U. S. Usco Tread, with a long-established standard of service among motorists who have an eye to value, as well as to price. While selling for less than the other tires in the U. S. FIRE PREVENTION STUDY IN SCHOOLS MADE COMPULSORY

Course of Study to be Prepared by State Industrial Commission

MADISON, Wis.—School children of the state will be compelled to devote one half hour each month to instruction in prevention of unnecessary fires, the industrial commission points out in explaining the new safety laws which have gone into effect as a result of favorable action by the last legislature.

A course of study in fire prevention will be prepared by the industrial commission with the superintendent of public instruction charged with enforcement of the law.

Further important addition to the safety laws was the Burke bill which provides that no machinery may be used or installed in the state that does not comply with all requirements of the safety laws and the orders of the industrial commission. As originally introduced this measure would have prohibited manufacture of machinery which did not comply with all industrial commission requirements.

The fire prevention statute particularly is said to show the increased attention being paid to public safety. Only recently, the industrial commission declares, has there been any organized effort to cut down the number of accidental injuries outside of industry.

In 1919 there were 1340 accidental deaths in Wisconsin and only 185 of these were in industry, while nearly half were of school children. It is further explained that there were 73 deaths from fire in 1919 in Wisconsin, with a large percentage children.

BEER POURED INTO SEWER
MILWAUKEE. — Thousands of gallons of four and five percent beer stored in the vats of the Jung Brewing company here have been turned into the sewers since July 1. It became known Wednesday.

It required more than two days to dispose of the beer.

The reasons were the Volstead law and retirement of the Jung Brewing company from the brewing business.

Casino—Franklyn Farnum in "The Last Chance"; comedy, "Mr. Fatima"; "Surrender Dear"; and Lon Chaney in "Outside the Law"; comedy; Fox News.

RIVOLI THEATER
"Getting seashell on dry land." Yes, it can be done—as will be adequately attested by a young actress who took a part in "Her First Elopement," the hilarious Reelart yachting comedy-drama which will show at the Rivoli theater for three days beginning Thursday.
"Her First Elopement" is a gloriously hilarious comedy-drama of a scheming "vamp," a girl bored by too many proposals and a hero who attempts a kidnapping—but ends the wrong girl! It all ends in a big laugh—and is heralded by the critics as Wanda Hawley's most entertaining vehicle. The clever young comedienne is supported by an excellent cast. It is a Reelart picture made under the direction of Sam Wood.

PREFERS STAGE TO TEETH
He pulled teeth daytimes, and at night he went regularly to the theater. It was a conflict between two professions, and the stage won. Jerome Patrick, the leading man who appears opposite Mary Miles Minter in "Don't Call Me Little Girl," now at the Rivoli for last times tonight, has had an exceedingly interesting career. He started on a sheep ranch in New Zealand, served as intern in the dental infirmary of the Royal hospital, London, came to America and has for some years been identified with Belasco stage productions. He has been seen in Reelart's pictures, "The Turncoat," "Her First Elopement," with Wanda Hawley, and is attracting favorable comment for his impersonation in the Minter picture. It is rumored that he is to desert the screen, however, and will appear again in a forthcoming Reelart play in New York.

FRANKLYN FARNUM—CASINO
Local movie fans will be given an opportunity of seeing their favorite, Franklyn Farnum, in his latest picture, "The Last Chance," at the Casino today.
Mr. Farnum is given countless chances to prove his prowess and skill as an actor and a horseman. A large company of well known and popular players support Franklyn Farnum. The star is at his best in this picture, which shows him in the guise of a peacocks Romeo, whose artless wooing proves to be irresistible to the fair sex. The production is the most pretentious in which this rising young star has, up to the present, appeared. Many large scenes furnish the background for the action of the story which is of the hard-riding and straight-shooting type.

"OUTSIDE THE LAW"—STRAND
With the D. K. of America's greatest detective on the script, many of the scenes filmed in the actual localities in San Francisco's slums, and others in an accurate reproduction of the city's Chinatown, "Outside the Law" at the Strand today.

fers an authentic picture of crime life in its western habitat. William J. Burns was present, during the filming of part of Tod Browning's picture at Universal City. He examined the script with apparent interest and offered several suggestions, two of which were accepted by the author. Producer, after examining the script for the other scenes thoroughly, turned the detective, Mr. Burns also coached Lon Chaney in some of the "hoods" used by denizens of the underworld. Although four blocks of Frisco's Chinatown, were built at Universal City at a cost of $60,000, Tod Browning took his star, Priscilla Dean, and Lon Chaney, Wheeler Oakman, Ralph Lewis and E. A. Warren to San Francisco to shoot staff in other parts of Chinatown, on the waterfront and on board a tug in the bay.

STRECKEUS STEAMBOAT LINE - ST. LOUIS

Keeping the House in Order

IT is in caring for the needs of its patrons, be they big or little, which stamps the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) as a service organization of the first order.

Whether the product be a major one, as for instance, gasoline, or one of the highly refined motor oils, or a secondary one, such as Standard Road Oil, facilities have been provided by which the patron, wherever he may live, may get what he wants with as little delay as possible, and at a minimum of expense.

For many years Standard Road Oil has been used by communities and individuals in providing a semi-hard surface to highways. Roads so treated are dustless, are not so easily affected by rains, and carry a heavier load with less power than is possible where plain dirt roads, however well cared for, are used.

Recently it has been apparent that many want to use this dust preventive on the roads about their homes. Some need but a single barrel; others two or three, but these small amounts they want badly.

As soon as it became apparent that there was a demand for Standard Road Oil in small quantities, the Company assigned to this product a sufficient number of iron barrels to care for the trade. These barrels are not sold but are used merely to transport the oil; to be returned as soon as they can be emptied.

By thus co-operating with its patrons, the Company can furnish small quantities of Standard Road Oil at a minimum price, and the user can get it in quantities of one barrel or a thousand barrels, without having to pay for the container.

This is but one of the many ways in which the highly specialized organization of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) serves the public, individually and collectively, to the profit of all.

WINONA BRIDGE TO BE MADE FREE UNDER A NEW LAW

Highway to Become Part of Minnesota Trunk System
With Toll off, is Plan

The Winona high bridge will probably be relieved of toll charges in the near future and be operated as a free bridge, if plans whereby it may be taken over jointly by the highway commissioners of Minnesota and Wisconsin and made a part of the joint trunk highway of the two states, are consummated.

This was the expression emanating from Winona municipal circles following a special meeting of the council at which time arrangements were made and a committee appointed to see Commissioner C. W. Babcock at St. Paul and arrange if possible to have the bridge made a part of the trunk highway. This would automatically remove the bridge to the state's possession, it is declared. The committee members are Mayor E. S. La Prade, President George Kerkow and Alderman George Polley.

The commissioner's powers to make the bridge a part of the state highway are enumerated in the following clause under head of "Power of Commissioners of Highways" in the state road bill:

The Available Toll
"Where any trunk highway runs to any interstate water forming the boundary between Minnesota and any other state and there connects with any interstate bridge across such boundary water or runs into any city or village situated on such water boundary and intersects any street thereof adjacent to and connecting with any such bridge, in every such case at that part of any such bridge within the limits of this state shall be considered as a part of such trunk highway system except where any such bridge is owned by a private person or corporation or is operated as a toll bridge, and said commissioner is authorized and directed to co-operate with the duly authorized authorities of such adjoining state in the maintenance, repair, construction and reconstruction of any such bridge."

This clause in the state bill fits the Winona situation except that the bridge is at the present time a toll bridge, a condition that can be easily remedied by ordinance. The other phrase making it conditional on the intervention by a state trunk highway can also be met, as three trunk highways lead into the city, one of which can be routed to intersect the bridge on any of the east and west thoroughfares, say the city officials.

Badgers Have Similar Law
Wisconsin also passed a law during the recent session making it possible for the commissioner to take over bridges which cross interstate waters if made a part of the Wisconsin state highway. The co-operation in this project with the Wisconsin state highway commissioner will be sought by the local committee as soon as Commissioner Babcock's assent to the part Minnesota will play is given.

If the project goes through, it will mean a free bridge for Wisconsin and Winona people, the bridge will be taken over by the two states and maintained by them, taking a big burden off the shoulders of the city, while the road on the Wisconsin side of the river will be improved and made into a first class highway.

He Was Reported Dead in France Will be Returned

MADISON, Wis.—Albert Brinker, an employee at a ten-cent store, was killed Wednesday because he believes he will be the heir to a comfortable fortune. Brinker has been a pawn of fate. He went over with the American expeditionary forces. While he was in the trenches overseas his father and mother died. He was wounded and was reported dead.

The state of Illinois took possession of the property left by Brinker's parents, believing all their heirs dead. Then Brinker returned. He was out of a job. He got a position in a local ten-cent store and after he had earned sufficient money he retained a lawyer. Now he has been notified that the state of Illinois will turn back his property, but Brinker intends to retain his job until the return is actually completed.

Brinker, whose home is in Chicago, could not be reached here Wednesday. The amount of the fortune which was left him is not definitely known, although he is said to have made the remark that it would be sufficient to provide a comfortable living for the rest of his life.

La Crosse Folks at University

There are thirty-two people from La Crosse enrolled in the summer session at the University of Wisconsin, the largest enrollment from La Crosse at the short session in its history. Although most of the local people attending the university this summer are those finishing up their regular work, there are many starting out their regular school work in advance of the fall term. Several normal school graduates who have been teaching in the state are also continuing their advanced work.

The La Crosse people who are registered for the session in the office of Registrar Hiestand follow: Roy V. Allstrom, Clarence C. Allstrom, Myron O. Bangsberg, Oranda C. Bangsberg, Edwin W. Blatter, Harold E. Craig, Donald C. Dean, John S. Dierker, Jennie H. Dixon, Eugene L. Edwards, Adolph H. Engstrom, Alexander J. Engelhard, Ben Folsberg, Alice J. Foster, Vivian M. Fuller, Paul C. La Crosse has two representatives in the law school this summer. Roy Allstrom, who was in the Oshkosh schools during the past year, is starting his law school course this summer, and Aloysius Engelhard is continuing the work in the law school which he started last fall. Mrs. Allstrom who has been in Madison, returned to her home during the hot weather.

Among La Crosse people in the school of medicine are Krentz, Eastlin, Ohlson, Blatter and Meinert. George Krentz is working in the state capital while attending summer school.

Rudolph Schibach, who finished his work in the law school in June, is employed during his apprenticeship in the law office of Mason & Stephens at Madison.

More than $75,000 was earned last year by the athletic department of the university and it is spent on improving Camp Randall field and stadium. Work on improving the stadium for the fall has already begun. The old grandstand is being torn down and a new set of bleachers will be erected on the same site.

Thomas Skemp of La Crosse, a graduate of the La Crosse normal school, is attending summer school at the university. In addition to coaching athletics, Skemp will have charge of the social science department at St. Mary's college at Winona during the next school year and he is taking some advanced work at Madison during the six weeks of summer school.

Four-In-Hand Boys' Wash TIES, Special at 15c

Hand Trunks $5.95

This is a sort of sawed-off steamer trunk in appearance, and it looks as if it would last for 100 years. It is 20 inches long, 16 1/2 inches high and 9 inches thick, made of heavy, indestructible fiber and with the lock and clasps and corner buffers of a trunk. It will hold twice as much as the average suitcase, yet it isn't too big to take along as hand luggage on a railroad trip; and it will fit neatly on the tonneau floor of an automobile. The lock and clasps and buffers and hinges alone look as if they were worth more than $5.95. Yet you get the whole outfit for that price. The reason is that the thing is really an army officer's field desk and filing cabinet—fully fitted up inside with filing devices. But the demand for army officer's field equipment no longer exists. So you can get the case—and dump out the filing devices—and you have a dandy little hand-trunk that you can travel clear around the world with and the price is only $5.95
